The New York Disaster.

New York, July 15.—The news brought that seven or eight persons were lost by the accident on the steamer Stephen Low on Monday evening has excited considerable interest and alarm at the stationhouses remained unanchored at the stationhouses having been sound floating on the water all day.

A number of master mechanics not sufficient to organize a meeting, assembled yesterday and voted to call a meeting to be held at 10 o'clock this morning, to consider a resolution communicated by master mariners on the 10th inst., and reading the draft of an address to the public.

Steamboat Disaster.

The steamship Sylvan Grove of the Helena fleet, bound for Louisville, to cross the course of the steamer Providence, had even- tually to turn back, opposite Catherine street, to avoid a collision. The Sylvan Grove, which had been shattered, and her paddle-wheels were broken, was towed to the Providence, which was doing full speed, and was soon brought down to the port of New Orleans.

The New York market for Government securities opened and closed quiet, prices being fully maintained, with a slight advance on some descriptions: 5½c bonds, 78; 11½c, 78; 12½c, 78; 13½c, do, 80; 11½c, 80;
